

Appraise your collection

Every 2-3 years if you have items:

- Worth $100,000 or more
- Containing diamonds of 3 carats or more

Use a professional jeweler with a Graduate Diamond or Gemologist certification.

Make it hard for burglars

House Tips

Tip 1

The first place burglars look is a jewelry box in the master bedroom or bathroom. Put your fine jewelry in a bank vault or in-house safe in an inconspicuous place.

Tip 2

Store jewelry in multiple safes in different places in the house.

68%

of burglars look for jewelry.*

10 minutes

How long a burglar typically spends in a house.

60%

of burglars avoid houses with alarms.* Connect your safe to your home alarm system.

30 minutes

How long the body and door of a TL-30 rated safe will successfully resist entry when attacked with common mechanical and electronic tools.

Keep track of it

Over 50% of jewelry claims occur because a piece was lost or misplaced, not stolen.

Every 1-2 years, restring pearl necklaces that are worn regularly to prevent them from breaking.

Traveling tips

- Check for loose stones before leaving.
- Make a list of items and keep them in sight at all times.
- Pack items in non-descript packaging.
- Keep items in the hotel safe, not in-room safe.
- Don't wear items to the pool, beach, skiing or biking.
